220 The state legal expense fund shall be the exclusive remedy and shall preclude any 221 other civil actions or proceedings for money damages arising out of or relating to 222 the same subject matter against the state officer or employee, or the officer's or 223 employee's estate. No officer or employee of the state or any agency of the state 224 shall be individually liable in his or her personal capacity for conduct of such 225 officer or employee arising out of and performed in connection with his or her 226 official duties on behalf of the state or any agency of the state. The provisions of 227 this subsection shall not apply to any defendant who is not an officer or employee 228 of the state or any agency of the state in any proceeding against an officer or 229 employee of the state or any agency of the state. Nothing in this subsection shall 230 limit the rights and remedies otherwise available to a claimant under state law 231 or common law in proceedings where one or more defendants is not an officer or 232 employee of the state or any agency of the state.

233           6. The limitation on awards for noneconomic damages provided for in this 234 subsection shall be increased or decreased on an annual basis effective January 235 first of each year in accordance with the Implicit Price Deflator for Personal

236 Consumption Expenditures as published by the Bureau of Economic Analysis of 237 the United States Department of Commerce. The current value of the limitation 238 shall be calculated by the director of the department of insurance, who shall 239 furnish that value to the secretary of state, who shall publish such value in the 240 Missouri Register as soon after each January first as practicable, but it shall 241 otherwise be exempt from the provisions of section 536.021, RSMo.

242           7. Except as provided in subsection 3 of this section, in the case of any 243 claim or judgment that arises under sections 537.600 and 537.610, RSMo, against 244 the state of Missouri, or an agency of the state, the aggregate of payments from 245 the state legal expense fund and from any policy of insurance procured pursuant 246 to the provisions of section 105.721 shall not exceed the limits of liability as 247 provided in sections 537.600 to 537.610, RSMo. No payment shall be made from 248 the state legal expense fund or any policy of insurance procured with state funds 249 pursuant to section 105.721 unless and until the benefits provided to pay the 250 claim by any other policy of liability insurance have been exhausted.

251           8. The provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, notwithstanding, any moneys 252 remaining to the credit of the state legal expense fund at the end of an 253 appropriation period shall not be transferred to general revenue.

254           9. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, 255 RSMo, that is promulgated under the authority delegated in sections 105.711 to 256 105.726 shall become effective only if it has been promulgated pursuant to the 257 provisions of chapter 536, RSMo. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to 258 repeal or affect the validity of any rule filed or adopted prior to August 28, 1999, 259 if it fully complied with the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo. This section and 260 chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the 261 general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective 262 date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, 263 then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after 264 August 28, 1999, shall be invalid and void.
